

VOICES OF LOVE (Musical group)
AUDIO TAPES AND PHOTOGRAPHS

92-088

Physical description:

2 audio tapes (TCD-0177. TTA-0177)
9 photographs

Dates:

15 May 1993.

Provenance:

The audio tapes were recorded by Center audio specialist Bruce Nemerov. The photographs were taken and have been identified by Robert Cogswell, Tennessee state folklorist.

Biographical sketch:

The Voices of Love is a gospel group consisting of Rev. James McCord, Michael Dixon, Margaret Spence, Rev. Johnny Rogers, John Hill, Huey Brown, John Phillips, Joe Whitaker, Robert Merritt, and Edward Bowens.

Scope and content:

These recordings and photographs document a performance by the Voices of Love gospel music group at Cabin Row Missionary Baptist Church, Montgomery county Tennessee on 15 May 1993. A list of group members and of the songs performed, prepared by Dr. Robert Cogswell, Tennessee state folklorist, and a log of the audio tapes, prepared by Bruce Nemerov, follow.

Location:

These audio tapes are filed first by format, then by tape number, in the audiovisual archives. These photographs are filed by name in the proper name iconographic collection.