

SGA Bill 4-22-S

A Bill to Create a Faculty and Administration Appreciation Week

Whereas: The administration and faculty of the university contribute extensively to the betterment and general operations of our campus community; and,

Whereas: Fostering communication and connections between faculty / administration and students would create a better environment for learning and general academic achievement; and,

Whereas: There currently exists a long-standing tradition of a student appreciation week taking place on campus each year; and,

Whereas: Faculty and administration deserve similar appreciation for their efforts in their work towards bettering campus life and education of students.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED BY THE 84th CONGRESS OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY THAT:

Section 1: The Academic Affairs Committee shall formally be responsible for the planning and execution of a faculty and administration appreciation week during the month of March. The event should be executed close to the time of Student Appreciation Week.

Section 2: Activities pertaining to faculty and administration appreciation week should work to create a more casual and open environment between staff and the students of the university. The executive branch and the Academic Affairs Committee should work as closely as necessary to ensure that the week's events are successful in this regard.

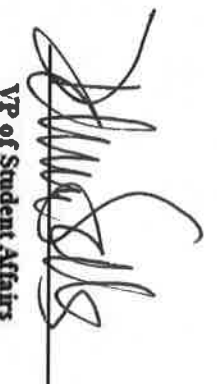

Section 3: A suitable level of funding shall be dedicated during Student Government Association budgeting each year to accommodate for any expenses deemed necessary by the Academic Affairs Committee. This funding shall be allocated in a similar manner as Student Appreciation Week, following the same necessary oversight procedures and general level of funds.

Section 4: This bill shall go into effect immediately upon favorable passage, with activities to be planned and executed by the academic affairs committee Spring 2022
