Officer Reports

President, Jeremy Poynter, asked people who are interested in being a freshman mentor to apply.

Shaun Luber, Executive Vice- President, said to email legislation on Mondays on weeks of Caucus

Vice President of Administration and Public Affairs, Erika Maclin announced that the deadline for Road Rally sign ups is October 21st and encouraged members to promote it. Dr. Sells met with Erika and the outcome of the meeting was that senate does not know what the students want and what SGA is doing. Erika is making a survey for students to take to gain legislation ideas and learn what SGA is doing that is effective. There is a private SGA group. Please request to be a friend of SGA so you can be part of a private group. Officers will put hour opportunities and other announcements up there. Rally towels will be passed out at the black out game.

John Thomas, Election Commissioner, reported that the number of voters in this election was the same as last years. This is positive because there were computer glitches and less candidates.

Philanthropic Coordinator, Courtnei Secrest, encouraged members to promote the upcoming blood drive. There will be sign up sheets for the snack area and sign in table at the blood drive. Help is needed at the Rec Center as well. If table tents are missing in campus cafeterias please let her know so they can be replaced.

Donald Abels, Homecoming Director, thanked everyone for the help this week. The largest parade ever is this Saturday and there is lots of help needed.

Attorney General, Katie Bogle informed the senate that TISL applications are due today.

Advisor, Dr. Kelley, spoke about the Salute to Service Day. CSIL October poster is out and needs to be displayed to support CSIL initiatives. Please “like” CSIL on Facebook.
