Previously Tabled Proposals	Effective Date	Proposed Action	Detailed Explanation	Reference #
Early Childhood Education, B.S.	Summer 2022	Change to curriculum of existing major (including concentrations), minor, or certificate	Beginning in 2025, all prospective educators entering a preparation program for early childhood education will complete an approved integrated early childhood and special education program offered by a Tennessee educator preparation provider (EPP). The Early Childhood Education pre-K-3 licensure that MTSU is currently offering will be phased out by 2025. The Tennessee Department of Education is no longer accepting proposals for the previous early childhood endorsements under current SBE policy.	8

Discussion: Jane Lim noted that she worked with Tyler Henson to clarify the teach out plan for students. A table has been added to the proposal in Curriculog.

Committee Action: A motion was made to approve the proposal. The motion was seconded and approved.

College of Education
Elementary and Special Education

Elementary Education, B.S.	Summer 2022	Change to curriculum of existing major (including concentrations), minor, or certificate	There are three proposed changes to the ELED K5 curriculum. The first is to add PHED 3500 Physical Education for Early Childhood as an option for K5 teacher candidates to take. This choice would be one of many (e.g., MUED 3210, ART 3200, CDIS 3250, THEA 3600, HLTH 4300) for students to pursue as part of their Content Major Requirements. NOTE: Adding PHED 3500 can be made retroactive to all valid catalogs. The second and third changes are to remove the old courses EESE 1010 and EESE 1011 from the catalog, upper division forms, and academic maps and to add the newly revised and approved (University Curriculum Committee, February 26, 2021) EESE 2010 Introduction to Education and EESE 2011 Introduction to Education Practicum.	9
